Democrats Take County, Texas, National Races

Milam County Tuesday carried for Massachusetts Senator John F. Kennedy and Texas Senator Lyndon Johnson over the Republican Nixon - Lodge ticket 3770 to 1952.

The Democratic team carried in Texas and the nation.

With 36 boxes complete, a total vote of 5739 ballots was tallied in the presidential race.

Another 100 votes was expected from boxes at Bushdale, Crush, and Watson Branch to push the total to 5846, the highest total in recent Milam elections.

It was a Democratic sweep in Milam County which joined with a majority vote in Texas to put the Lone Star State back into the Democratic column for the first time since 1952.

At 8 a. m. Wednesday the Democratic Kennedy - Johnson ticket had been conceded by election experts the national election with more than 61 million votes counted. Vice - President Nixon conceded the election as California, his home state, went for Kennedy.

A total national vote of about 70 million ballots was expected. It was a record turnout.

Sen. Johnson was also successful in winning his senatorial seat in Milam County voting, polling 4052 votes to Republican John G. Tower's 1485. Bard A. Logan, Constitution candidate, polled 11 for his post. Johnson carried Texas over Tower.

Milam County gave heavy majorities to other state Democratic candidates including:

Both Cameron polls were crowded with voters right up to closing time 7 p. m. Tuesday. About 30 election boxes came in before 1 a. m., when the county clerk's office closed.

Folk Singer Returned Home After Death In Milano Wreck

The body of folksinger Johnny Horton, 35, author and singer of the Hit Parade's "Battle of New Orleans", was flown to Shreveport, La., Saturday.

Horton had been killed in a collision involving his 1960 Cadillac and a station wagon driven by 19 - year - old James Evans Davis, of Brady and a Texas A & M Student, about 1 a. m. Saturday at Milano.

The vehicles collided with horrendous crash at the rail overpass on US 79 in Milano. Horton's Cadillac, parked at Lonnie Armstrong's Taxi Co., was demolished.

Escaping death were:

Tilman Franks, 40, of Shreveport, Horton's manager and Gerald Tomlinson, 30, guitarist for Horton. Both men were rushed to St. Edward's Hospital by amublance after the crash.

They were flown to Shreveport Monday by special plane.

Franks suffered scalp cuts while Tomlinson suffered a fractured left ankle, leg and hip. He was taken off the critical list over the wee'end.

Davis suffered a fractured ankle and anumerous cuts and bruises. His vehicle was heavily damaged.

Crowds of people gathered in Cameron over the weekend to view the wreckage of Horton's Cadillac.

Highway Patrolman Gilbert Smith said that investigation on cause of the accident was continuing. He said the cars apparently collided in the center of US 79 as Horton was driving east and Davis was heading west.

He said that both vehicles skidded about 300 feet after the collision.

Funeral services were held earlier this week for the hillbilly singer in Shreveport.

Horton, his manager and guitarist were heading to Shreveport from an engagement in Austin. His father - in - law, Police Lt. J. A. Jones, Sr., of Bossier City, La., took Horton's body by plane to Shreveport.

Once a resident of Rusk, Texas, Horton was noted for his recordings of "The Battle of New Orleans" and "Sinking of the Bismark," both folk music renditions of the historic events.

North Milam Fund Passes Halfway Mark This Week

Downtown business and employee solicitation nears completion, nearly half of the North Milam United Fund's $11,500 budget has been secured, according to Richard W. Moseley, chairman.

Moseley said he anticipated that two - thirds of the total budget will be raised by the business division. The remainder of the goal will be sought from the residential solicitation and gifts from the smaller communities surrounding Cameron.

He reports that employees contributions have been exceptionally good this year. The McLane Co. & Texas Power and Light Co. have reported gifts from all of their employees, as well as substantial company contributions. Many other concerns are nearly 100 percent. Their names will be made public when the reports are complete.

The United Fund was given a big boost yesterday when E. E. Baker, Supt. of the Santa Fe. Railroad, R. W. Jackson, Division Freight Agent, L. E. Crow, local agent, and R. H. Doenges, Santa Fe Trails agent, presented the fund chairman with their usual large contribution.

Chairman Moseley stated that residential solicitation would begin next week and that the drive would continue until the goal was reached.

Scout Exec Moves To Bay City Job; Lott Man Starts

Burts Kennedy, Boy Scout executive for Falls - Milam Counties, has been appointed to a similar post in the Bay City Area Council.

He has been succeeded in Milam - Falls Counties by Lee Romaine, of Lott, who is moving to Cameron this week. Romaine, a native Central Texan, is a 1960 graduate of Baylor University with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

Kennedy served as Scout executive in this area for more than three years. He and his wife have moved to Texas City, center of the Bay Area Council, on the Gulf Coast.

R. R. Sugg, Tejas District chairman, said that "we are sorry to lose Kennedy's services though we are happy to see him get a greater opportunity in the professional Scouting field.'.

Kennedy has been conducting organization of a widened Explorer Scout program for Cameron high school - age boys.

The game between the Yoemen and the sturdy A & M Consolidated crew is rated close by grid observers. Winner will be undisputed champion of 19AA probably meet the winner of 18AA probably Taylor for the bi - district. Cameron will share in the title even if the Yoemen lose.

A & M Consolidated will field one of the heaviest teams to face the fast - driving Yoemen this year. Coach Bill Bates predicted a wide open scramble for the crown in a talk before Cameron Quarterbacks and their wives Monday night.

100 Years Worth Waiting For . . .

It won't be long now!

Yes, the Herald's big Centennial issue is scheduled to come out soon.

Right now preparations are under way to get out the big edition. Facts and figures are being assembled. Stories are being written. Pictures of the old days and of today are being gathered.

All of this takes time. But we believe the big Centennial issue will be worth waiting for.

County Approves Amendments1,2,4

Milam County favored three of the four Constitutional Amendments, voting against Amendment No. 3 by about 400 votes to authorize an increase and yearly salary for state legislators.

But Texas went for all four amendments though by a comparitively close margin of 50,000 votes divided fors and againsts on Amendment No. 3.

The Milam County Amendment vote, with 36 boxes and absentee voting complete, went like this:

AMENDMENT	FOR	AGAINST
No. 1 (Hospital Districts)	1846	1611
No. 2 (Veterans Land Fund)	2287	1309
No. 3 (Annual Salaries)	1644	2008
No. 4 (Loan Classification)	2204	1446

Not more than 100 votes were uncounted and the outcome on Milam County's decision on Amendment No. 3 would not change.

TEXAS LAWMEN

MAJOR JOHN B. JONES, RANGER

"Better stay right here in Texas . ."

When the carpetbaggers moved into Texas after the Civil War, John B. Jones, ex-officer of Terry's Texas Rangers, took a trip to Mexico and Brazil to spot a favorable location for an emigrant Southern colony. "Stay in Texas," he advised. When Governor Richard Coke reactivated the Texas Rangers on May 2, 1874, he commissioned Jones Major, Frontier Battalion. The Major organized and directed six companies of Rangers on the Western border, from the Red River to the Rio Grande, while, with a small escort, he patrolled from company to company. During the next seven years the Frontier Battalion was fully occupied clearing the border of hostile Indians and the interior of outlaws. Major Jones was peacemaker for the feuding Horrells and Higginites at Lampasas in '77. He was at Round Rock when Sam Bass bit the dust. In El Paso he quelled the bitter, bloody Salt War and later represented Texas on the international commission which settled that long-drawn-out dispute over important salt beds in the West. In January, 1879, Major Jones was appointed Adjutant General of Texas, but continued to direct his then famous Frontier Battalion until his death in '81. Though his name is too seldom mentioned in Ranger legends, it was he more than any other one man who brought the corps to the height of its service and efficiency.

Today Texans owe much to the lawmen who brought peace to the frontier — and much also to industry and commerce, bringers of prosperity and pleasure. The brewing industry has done its part — providing community revenues, payrolls and the refreshment of moderation. In Texas "Beer Belongs." The United States Brewers Foundation is constantly at work with brewers, wholesalers and retailers to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly and law-abiding conditions.

Postmaster Describes Shapes, Sizes, Colors Of Envelopes

"The rugged individualism of Americans is clearly evident in the sizes, shapes, and colors of the envelopes they deposit in the mail," says Postmaster J. R. Hays. In most instances the variations are reasonable and cause no difficulty, but quite often extremely small or odd - shapped envelopes and brightly colored ones or those of paper with an over - all design contribute to mishandling or loss in the mails.

If the most prompt and accurate postal service is to be given, these recommendations of the Post Office Department with regard to envelopes should be followed:

1. Use any light color that does not interfer with legible address and postmark. Brilliant colors should not be used.

2. Use paper strong enough to withstand normal handling in the mails. Highly glazed paper or that with an over - all design is not satisfactory for showing the address and necessary postal endorsements legibly.

3. Use standard sizes. Envelopes smaller than 2 3-4 by 4 inches or larger than 9 by 12 inches are not recommended.

When window envelopes are used, they are subject to the following conditions:

1. The address window must be parallel with the length and in the lower portion of the envelope.

2. Nothing but the name, address, and any key number used by the mailer may appear through the address window.

3. The return address should appear in the upper left corner. Though recommended for all envelopes, this is especially important for the window type since the enclosure sometimes is inserted or slipped in such manner that the address in not visible. In such cases envelopes without return address must be treated as dead mail.

4. The address disclosed through the window must be on white or light - colored paper.

By following the recommendations of the Postal Service with respect to envelopes, business firms and individuals can assure themselves of better mail service and make a real contribution to the efficient, economical operation of post offices in handling over 60 billions of pieces of mail yearly.

You've never driven a heavyweight that handled like this one!

HERE! EASIER GOING FOR THE DRIVER AND THE LOAD, LONGER LIFE FOR THE TRUCK!

'61 TORSION-SPRING CHEVROLETS

If you don't think scrapping the front axle has made a world of difference, you haven't driven a Chevy in a while. A few minutes behind the wheel and you can feel why drivers are happier and breakable loads are better protected. But the biggest advantage of all, you'll realize, is that the truck itself (sheet metal, tires, chassis components, everything) takes less abuse. With independent front suspension soaking up road shock and vibration, the truck lasts longer, goes extra thousands of miles before trade-in time. Add that to what everybody's always known about Chevy dependability and you find yourself looking at the soundest truck investment you could bet your business on. CHEVROLET and look! NEW REAR-ENGINE CORVAIR 95's

A panel and two pickups that put a thrifty air-cooled engine in the rear, the driver up front and as much as 1,900 pounds of load space in between! That's more capacity than a conventional half-tonner. Yet these Corvair 95's are nearly two feet shorter from bumper to bumper. Highly maneuverable. Built to last and bound to save on a busy schedule!

Abuilding We Will Go . . .

Construction continues at four major sites in Cameron and city workmen are continuing street and drainage improvements.

The collective effort of private enterprise, individual home owners and the city has shown a remarkable improvement in Cameron during the past 10 months.

Cameron can note with pride the new building fronts, refurbished interiors, the improvement drainage system, the additional improvements throughout residential and business districts.

These are certainly signs and confirmation of confidence in Cameron's future in the 1960's.

These same excellent efforts can be directed to the basic challanges of the Central Texas and Cameron area:

ONE—Making every effort to assist area farmers in improving their position in the agriculture economy;

TWO—Working toward the location of industry for the employment of Milam Countains who seek to live here, but who possibly face moving away due to lack of job opportunity.

The same efforts that are making it possible to build a new church, a new hospital, new store fronts, new curbing, new drainage, new paving, widened streets, new homes . . . can bring success to any major need of this area.

Locating industry may depend as much on the attitude of people interviewed by industry representatives as on the physical appearance of a town. A chance conversation with an apparent stranger might lead to the location of an industry in Cameron . . . . or it might preclude an industry's further investigation, without the knowledge of Chamber and civic leaders who strive to put Cameron's best foot forward.

Interest in new methods of farming may determine the success of hundreds of county farmers who encounter the multitude of problems in making farming pay at a fair profit.

These things are a part everyone can play. And it is a part that everyone is playing. The proof is abuilding all around us. Evidence of promise and desire for an even stronger Cameron and Milam County must be in our minds and hearts or else we could not see these things at our fingertips.

Red China, Russia Resolve Quarrel

Their outward reuniting no doubt awaits the new American President to make his foreign policy tasks no less difficult.

Observers often will contemplate the possibilities of seeing Red China and Russia face off in an internal battle. But for the time, they have resolved their differences in the traditional Communist conspiracy.

During the whirlwind finish of the presidental campaign Nikita Khruschev was making amends with Communist China.

It is an apparent switch to reaffirmation of the Communist alliance that spreads over two continents. Some weeks back, Khruschev and Red China's Mao had major differences about dealing with the West.

Livestock Survey To Be Conducted By Rural Carriers

Rural mail carriers from the Cameron post office will leave some livestock survey cards along their routes beginning November 16.

"Information reported on these cards is used to set the yearly inventory of livestock and poultry on Texas farms," Postmaster Hays explained.

In distributing the cards, rural carriers pick boxes at random along their routes.

"This means that not every box will get a card," Hays said. "For this reason, it's important for everyone who gets a card to return it filled out so that USDA can get a true sample of the State's livestock holdings."

Carriers assisting with the survey are Chas. Nabours, Rt. 1; Alvin Mullinax, Rt. 2, Herbert Nance, Rt. 3 and Narvie L. Capertons, Rt. 4.

Facts and figures secured in this survey are the basis for the Texas and National pig crop report and inventories of livestock and poultry on farms as of the first of the year. Stockmen and many others use this information in making business decisions.

Survey results will be widely distributed through Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service releases, newspapers, farm magazines, radio and television.

"This annual survey has been a joint undertaking of the Post Office and the Agriculture Departments since 1924", concludes Hays.

Charms Wrapped In Color Booklet

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Like a debutante daughter in bedlam years, Texas many charms have been wrapped in a lavish, full - color booklet and presented for the attraction of free - spending visitors.

First of its kind ever published in Texas, the 22 - page brochure was compiled by the State Highway Department and is being distributed free. First printing of 400,000 copies is being sent to travel agencies, clubs, newspapers, anywhere that it may be used to draw tourists to Texas.

It is one of the first big steps in a program to reverse Texas' decline in tourist revenue.

Texas is "twenty years behind the times" in advertising tourist attractions, says Tom H. Taylor, director of the Travel and Information Division of the Highway Department. Next goal is to get the Legislature to appropriate $300,000 to be used for media advertising over the country, as other states do.

Requests for copies of the brochure should be sent to the Travel and Information Division of the Texas Highway Department in Austin. Taylor said the Department expects heavy demand and will not be able to furnish the booklet in quantities.

MORE WATER AID IS GOAL

Gov. Price Daniel said he will ask the next Legislature to take action aimed at speeding up local water conservation projects.

Speaking to the Texas Water Conservation Association, the governor said he would urge more money for water projects and a more flexible financing program.

Marvin Nichols of Fort Worth, chairman of the Texas Water Development Board, urged that the present ceiling of $5,000,000 on any one water loan be raised to $15,000,000. Under the present water development program the state sells bonds to raise money to lend to local governments to help pay for water conservation construction. Lending is limited to one third the total coast and $5,000,000 on any one project.

Nichols said the Water Development Board was "admittedly disappointed" in the small number of loans (eight for a total of $14,840,000) completed since the program was passed in 1957. Abundant rainfall has caused many local governments to lose a sense of urgency about water conservation, said Nichols.

Several speakers warbed if the certainty of another drough "Biggest problem in many cities by 1970 may be getting a good drink of water," said one.

INSURANCE RATE BIKE REJECTED

State Board of Insurance turned down by a unanimous vote a proposed 30 per cent increase in auto insurance rates.

Board will re - study the problem in June 1961. Until then the present rates will continue.

Board also turned down by a 2 - to - 1 vote a proposal by Chairman Penn J. Jackson to allow companies to make the merit rating system optional. It is asking for an attorney general's opinion on whether opional merit rating would be legal.

Board member Robert W. Strain said he felt an across - the - board raise in auto insurance rates would be unfair to law - abiding, accident - free drivers.

DPS MEMORIAL PRESENTED

A 6 by 8 foot bronze plaque commemorating Department of Public Safety men killed in line of duty is to be mounted in the lobby of the DPS Headquarters in Austin.

and Roy C. Archer was unopposed in his election as chief justice of the Court of Civil Appeals, 3rd Supreme Judicial District.

And Democrat Horace K. Jackson carried unopposed into office on the State Board of Education 11th Congressional District.

Milam County Democrats were jubilant over the county victory. The county carried 35 of the 36 precincts reported for Kennedy - Johnson. Only Rockdale's Precinct 16 carried into the Republican column, with Nixon carrying 394 to Kennedy's 267. Johnson carried a close senatorial battle in that precinct 369 - 315.

Both Cameron precincts went for the Democrats. Voting was 532 to 404 for Kennedy in the Yoe School Precinct No. 1 and 325 to 134 for Kennedy at the Milam Courthouse, Precinct No. 2. Johnson carried both precincts in the senatorial election (See President and Senatorial tallies for complete tabulation on 36 boxes complete and absentee balloting.)

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER

Now That Election Is Over A Few Things Need Clearing Up

Dear editar:

Now that the election is over there are a few things I'd like to get cleared up before the inauguration in January.

The winner, as well as the loser, kept hammering all through the campaign that we've all got to go forward, not backward, we can't stand still.

I've never seen two candidates agree more on the idea that everybody has got to stop loafing and start working.

In a general way, I agree with this, but in a specific way, I have my doubts. Well, I really don't have my doubts, I know blamed well I'm not going to work any harder in 1961 than I'm working right now.

I'm all in favor of the President, Congress, the cabinet, the General Staff, etc., working harder, of the defense plants working harder, the scientists working harder, the schools working harder, even the pupils working harder, probably the tax collectors working harder, but I have reviewed my situation out here on this Johnson grass farm and have come to the conclusion that there's not a thing I can do around here by working harder to keep a guided missile from nose - diving, an atomic submarine from bumping into the South Pole, Fidel Castro from talking on his television, Congo tribes from fighting each other, Khrushchev from pulling off his shoe in public, etc.

However, understand, I will not hold back. I will do what I can, and wish to announce I have elected the field of foreign prestige. I intend to work harder on my prestige abroad. I have found from years of trying that it may tige with somebody on the other side of the earth than across the fence. If at any time next year it looks like I'm not going forward, I will appreciate your remembering that I'm working on my foreign prestige and I can do it just as well sitting down as riding a tractor. I would like to say in this connection though that my prestige is not at an all-time low with my neighbors. Its about where it's been for years. Never was high enough to measure in the first place.

I congratulate the new President. I don't envy him his job.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

14-6 Win Returns Victory Bell To Yoe

By Robert Mann

Despite a last minute effort by Rockdale, the Cameron Yoemen hammered out a 14 - 6 win to bring the victory bell back to Cameron after a one year absence.

Carroll Fikes was the big difference as his broken field running pounded yard after yard of valuable gainage.

Fikes scored the Yoe's first TD on a 10 yard sprint in the third quarter and tossed a pass to Ed Lierman for the other TD. He also accounted for two extra points on a runover.

The Tigers took an early 6-0 lead midway through the first quarter when Ronnie Laurence went over the goal from the one yardline.

The drive started on Rockdale's 34. Ronnie and Donnie Laurence alternated in carrying the pigskin and brought it to the Cameron 33 where pass interference was called on the Yoemen.

The pass interfernce penalty gave the Tigers a first down situation on the 9. David Barkemeyer teamed with Ernest Bayer to hold the Tigers for 3 plays before Laurence plunged over.

The PAT pass went incomplete.

Cameron didn't get rolling until the third period when an 81 yard drive set up Fikes 10 yard paydirt jot.

Camcron took possession on the Rockdale 19 following a 43 yard punt off the toe of Daniel Yezak.

A 30 yard pass completion that was hauled in by David Barkemeyer tremendous hands - over - head catch gave the Yoemen new live. Fikes lossened up his arm muscles and hit Earl Morgan with another airel throw. This one good for 17 yards.

From the Tiger's 34 Lierman got 5 yards, Fikes 2 and then 11 for a first down on the 22. Halfback Morgan punched out 6.

Fikes went around the left side of the line for 10 yards and the 6 tallies to tie the ballgame. Fikes ran over the two extra points standing up to give Cameron the 6-6 edge.

Rockdale carried as far as Cameron's 24 before a fumble that was covered by Lierman gave the Yoemen the ball as the final period got underway.

The capacity crowd at Yoe High Field came to their feet as Fikes faked and went up the middle for a 10 yard gain on the second play from scrimmage.

Fikes picked up 4 his next attempt and then 1 to set the scene for the TD pass.

Fikes went deep in his own territory and tossed back to the line of scrimmage where big Ed Lierman took in the ball and went up the sideline 32 yards. He sidestepped one tackler and went through three more enroute.

The touchdown gave Lierman a total of 82 points scored this year to give him a healthy 2 point margin for the district top scoring honors.

There wasn't much action left in the ballgame until Rockdale took control of the ball in the final two minutes.

Fikes punted 40 yards to Rockdale's 34 where Menn received and carried back to Cameron's 24 yardline. A 16 yard pass from D. Laurence to R. Laurence put the ball on Cameron's 3. A run gave Rockdale a 3 and 1 situation as the clock ran out ending the most breathtaking game witnessed by Central Texas football fans this year.

The Yoemen were outplayed statistic - wise in the way of yardage picked up passing and running and first downs.

The Cameron backs were paced by Fikes. He garnered 56 yards in 12 attempts and completed 5 out of 10 passes.

The Cameron defence squad was in good shape despite the absence of Chris Gay and a partially disabled Bayer. Dave Barkemeyer, Stanley Kirk, Bobby Griswold, James Edwards, Bret Shumate, and Johnny Richter were the top tacklers.

Roy Wohleb excelled at his end spot, throwing several key blocks that paved the way to victory.

Recapturing The Serenity Of A Time Long Ago

Sometimes on a quiet street of a sequestered village, one can sense the tranquility of yesteryear's simple life and sturdy virtues. Today's pace is faster, its problems more complex, but the church, so esteemed by our forbears can still cotnribute most importantly to our peace of mind. The church remains today as always, the keystone of happy contented living.

I Give You Texas

By Boyce House

When I was the editor of the Cisco Daily News back in 1924, there was a middle aged man who came into the office almost every morning to read the "exchanges" -- (the newspapers of the area which we received in exhange for the News).

He was well - dressed, his linen was immaculate, his manner had the courtliness of the Old South. His name was Max Elser. He and a partner had built the telegraph line from Dallas to Fort Worth in anticipating of the arrival of Fort Worth's first railroad. The construction of the railroad was delayed because of financial difficulties and so Elser operated the telegraph line about a year; then the Texas and Pacific reached the town and took over the line.

When I knew him, he was an oil man, I don't think he drilled but sometimes had a financial interest in a test. His specialty was getting up blocks of acreage. Some years before, he had held leases on several thousand acres in an adjoining county and he became known as "the Count of Callahan."

Later, numerous oil pools were developed in Callahan County and, had Elser held on to all his holdings, he doubtless would have been a multimillionaire. But I doubt that he could have been any happier for he was, despite his years, one of the most alive men I have ever known.

There are some who were intended to be prophets who show the way to others. Such a pioneer was Max Elser, the Count of Callahan.

In the old days, most cigaret-smokers "rolled their own." There was a skill in this; also it was a graceful sight to see just the right amount of tobacco poured from the sack into the bent paper; then came the rolling into a neat little cylinder, the moistening with the tip of the tongue to "glue" the cigaret, and the final twist to the tip. Then this tip expired in a flare as the match was applied and the smoker inhaled the first draw, then -- with a sigh of contentment -- slowly exhaled the blue wisp of smoke.

Review Rules Before Going On Deer Hunt

AUSTIN — "Hunters heading for the field beginning opening day, Nov. 16, should take time out now to rehearse some important musts," suggests J. B. Phillips, assistant director of law enforcement, Texas Game and Fish Commission. This involves everything from giving equipment of the hunt a once - over, to the care of the kill."

Each year brings tragedy to the families of many hunters because of faulty guns or failure to obey the rules of safe hunting, according to Phillips. A careful review of these rules and a double check of rifles and ammo may be more important than many hunters realize," he warned.

The assistant director also reminded hunters that crippled deer are potential killers. Be positive that the deer you shoot are dead before getting too close to them. Only recently a story from out of the state told about a hunter who was killed by a wounded deer."

The woods this hunting season will be filled with hunters. Many of them will be out for the first time, and they will not be on guard at all times. The director suggested that these novices be extra careful, both when handling their rifles and when sighting in on deer. Be certain it's a deer -- a legal deer."

Taking care of the meat after the deer has been bagged also is important. Know how to properly care for venison before you shoot. Lots of good meat is lost each year because of spoilage", said the director. If you don't know the director. If you don't know how to care for the meat, ask someone before the hunt."

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Love and Miss Julia Zapalac of Temple visited Mrs. Sam Houston Saturday.
